

Think Virtual. Think Professional. Think IPM.

Microsoft Consultant – Full Time Employee

IPM is a New York City based IT consulting firm specialized in the design and integration of virtualization solutions across the enterprise. We are recognized as the go-to partner for virtualization of IT infrastructure (network, server and storage platforms), business applications and desktop systems by prominent technology vendors and globally recognized professional service firms alike. IPM has served clients across NY, NJ, CT and FL for over 25 years and is a Citrix Platinum, Microsoft Gold, EMC Velocity, VMware Premier and AppSense partner.

Due to strong demand and growth in the Microsoft space, IPM has an immediate need for Microsoft Consulting Engineers. The ideal candidate will be a key contributor to projects involving the assessment, design and implementation of Microsoft System Center and Hyper-V solutions. The associated architectures may integrate Microsoft with multiple hypervisors, including: Hyper-V, XenServer, and/or VMware Vsphere. Architectures may also include other products from the Citrix and Microsoft suites, such as Xen Essentials for Hyper-V, Xen Desktop, Windows 7, App-V or Med-V.

Responsibilities Include:

- Performing on-site assessments and infrastructure analysis
- Creating advanced designs and contributing to project plans
- Implementing solutions – Critical
- Working in conjunction with project managers to ensure a smooth deployment
- Supporting existing and new deployments
- Research, design, deploy, and test System Center Operations Manager.
- Design, implement, and support server virtualization using Hyper-V.

Minimum Requirements:

- Expert level knowledge of Microsoft SCCM, SCVMM, SCOM
- 5-10+ years of technical design experience with Microsoft Enterprise technologies
- 5+ years customer consulting experience
- History of having performed successful System Center implementations
- Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer
- Experience with ancillary technologies i.e. SMS, MOM, etc.
- Experience leading large complex projects
- Experience developing customer relationships and strong rapport
- Excellent customer-facing skills (written and verbal communications) are a must
- Must be a self-starter; take initiative, and be proactive
- Ability to work independently and as part of a larger project team
- Candidate must be based in NY Metro area or South Florida
